- 3.8 You will be able to transfer funds from another account held with AXIORY into the account that has been awarded with the Promotion (incoming internal transfer). However, if you transfer funds from the account awarded with the Promotion into another account held with AXIORY (outgoing internal transfer), the Promotion will be proportionally moved and alternatively removed as per the examples provided below.

- 3.9 If you place a withdrawal request, the Promotion will be removed from your trading account as per the examples below:

Example 1 – New Client:

Balance = 200 USD

Credit = 200 USD (100%)

Equity = 400 USD

If you place a withdrawal request of 20 USD, this will be 10% of the balance and 10% of the credit will be removed (i.e., 20 USD). Therefore, your balance will come down to 180 USD and your credit will come down to 180 USD.

If you place a withdrawal request of 100 USD, this will be 50% of your balance and 50% of the credit will be removed (i.e., 100 USD). Therefore, your balance will come down to 100 USD and your credit will come down to 100 USD.

Example 2 – Existing client:

Balance = 300 USD

Credit = 450 USD (150 %)

Equity = 750 USD

If you place a withdrawal request of 30 USD, this will be 10% of the balance and 10% of the credit will be removed (i.e., 30 USD & 45 USD). Therefore, your balance will come down to 270 USD and your credit will come down to 405 USD.

If you place a withdrawal request of 150 USD, this will be 50% of your balance and 50% of the credit will be removed (i.e., 150 USD & 225 USD). Therefore, your balance will come down to 150 USD and your credit will come down to 225 USD.

Example 3 – New Client:

Balance = 1000 USD (includes 330 USD Profits)

Credit = 670 USD

Equity = 1670 USD

If you place a withdrawal request of 500 USD, this will be 50% of your balance and 50% of the credit will be removed (i.e., 500 USD). Therefore, your balance will come down to 500 USD and your credit will come down to 335 USD.

3.10 Any profit earned via trading with the Promotion can be kept and withdrawn in accordance with AXIORY's withdrawal of funds procedure. Withdrawal fees apply.

3.11 In the event the equity [the balance (closed positions) in the trading account plus the floating profit and loss from open positions] on the account reaches negative value ("equity without credit") the Promotion shall be automatically removed and the account will be reset back to zero. Please see examples below:

Example 1:

Equity = 10,000 USD

Credit = 5,000 USD

Equity without credit =  $10,000 - 5,000 = 5,000$  USD

In this example, the remaining equity on the trading account is 5,000 USD, and so the Promotion is not removed.

Example 2:

Equity = 4,999 USD

Credit = 5,000 USD

Equity without credit =  $4,999 - 5,000 = -1$  USD

In this example, the equity reached the negative value of -1 USD, and so the Promotion is automatically removed.
